Rules of Entry

Please read before submitting your entry.

The StruCad International Drawing Competition is open to any licensed StruCad user, regardless of size or turnover.

All submitted entries must be detailed using StruCad only.

Entries will be judged on originality, technical content and innovation, not size and weight.

Entries should not have been submitted to any previous StruCad Drawing Competition and should have been drawn in 2008/2009.

There is no charge to enter the StruCad Drawing Competition.

There is no restriction on the number of entries submitted per company.

Entries should take the form of a StruCad (zipped or rar Model or 3D views if not), in SPF Format, and a StruWalk file (bsw) and should be supplied on CD.

All relevant photographs, artists' impressions or rendered views should also be included on CD.

All entries must be submitted by November 20th 2009 and should be accompanied by an entry form.

Judging will take place on November 25th 2009, winners will be announced shortly after.

Our Guarantee

All marketing use of submitted entries will be properly referenced to the entrant company. The AceCad Software Group will only use entries to the 2008/2009 StruCad Drawing Competition for the promotion of the products, projects and companies involved.

Please complete the permission form to allow us to promote in the manner specified above.

If you have any queries, please contact the AceCad Software marketing department on +44 (0) 1332 545800 or marketing@acecadsoftware.com
